

'ary 1st, Paris:

lemen, you might have done some good, and you ily done harm. You say that adversity has coun-ae well. How can you turn my reverses into a re-? I have supported them with honour, because gave me a strong and proud character; were 3 pride in my soul I could not have risen to the t throne of the Universe. ! needed sympathy, and it was to you I looked for have tried to spatter me with mud, but I am one of .en who must be killed and cannot be dishonoured. t is a question of driving away the enemy, you ask institutions; as though we had none! Is not the ition enough for you ? You should have asked •ther one four years ago, or else wait until two fter peace is made. Do you want to imitate the uent Assembly and start a Revolution ? irs to be issued by the chief of staff.) The army iprise four corps.

:hief of staff will arrange with the Defence Com-;o divide the frontier among these four commands. :hed to each of these four armies there shall be rrectional Committee.

(To Caulaincourt.) I doubt whether the Allies ing in good faith, and whether England wants [do, but only solid and honourable, nust listen, observe. It is not certain that they will